

Public Open Nights 2011/12

“Exoplanets. The Search for New Earths” By Mark Shepherd

September 2nd and 3rd

“From the Big Bang to a Pint of Beer” By Mark Thompson

October 21st and 22nd

“The Messenger Mission to Mercury” By Alan Hurst

November 18th and 19th

“The Future of Mars” By Ben Hurst

December 2nd and 3rd

“Topical Astronomy” By Dave Balcombe

January 20th and 21st

“Introduction to the Aurora” By Mark Turner

February 10th and 11th

“The Search for Extra Terrestrial Life” By Dave Cook

March 30th and 31st

Doors open at 7:30 with talks starting at 8:00 unless the room fills up earlier in which case the talk will start early and be repeated.

Admission - Adults £2.50 Children £1.50 Adult members £1.50 Children £1.00 there is no need to pre-book, just turn up on the night.

Teas and coffee are available at the end of the talk and there will be a chance to observe through the telescopes if the skies are clear.

Talks vary in length but generally last approximately 40 minutes and are aimed at those with a general interest in astronomy. Children are welcome (from about 8 years upwards)

Address - Toad Lane, Thwaite St Mary, NR35 2EQ (Next to Seething Airfield)

Charity number - 262968

Visit our website at www.norwich.astronomicalsociety.org.uk for more details